

University of California San Diego

Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

EXAMINATION REVIEW POLICY

Review of completed course examinations can provide an important learning opportunity for students. The Examination Review Policy is intended to support this concept.

Course examinations will be available for review as directed by the course chair(s).

This may take the form of class reviews or individual review of an exam by a student or as directed by the course chair(s).